

SOCIETY

Thompson, chairman of the committee. An entertaining program was rendered, consisting of dialect readings by Mrs. John Reed, vocal solos by Dr. Wesley Davis, and instrumental selections by Miss Ritter and Miss Greider. About 50 were present and a delightful evening was spent.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Nellie Worthen at her residence on Tuesday evening, previous to her departure for "Coriant." Games were played and refreshments were served during the evening. The guests were the Misses Izetta Taylor, Edna Worthen, Lena Rieser, Daisy Donaldson, Hazel Heath, Cora Kieser, Verna Wilcox, Messrs. Clarence Erickson, James Hurst, Andrew Arnoldus, Ernest Brazier, Walter Glenn, Ralph Luilwing and Harmon Weight.

VANDERBILT'S OFFER.

Society is greatly interested in the divorce of Elliott F. Shepard, Jr. The absence of a demand for alimony is causing considerable comment. A report unverified is going the rounds that prominent members of the Vanderbilt family anxious to free their relative from his matrimonial yoke have offered to give Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, Jr., a sum as high as $100,000 if she carries the divorce suit to a successful conclusion.

Miss Rosalie Pollock is home from a six weeks' absence in Minnesota, where she attended the convention of the National Teachers' association.

Miss Cora M. McDonald of Colorado Springs is in the city visiting Mrs. Albert C. Jones at 121 Eighth East. Miss McDonald is a specialist in the interpretation of the poetry of Robert Browning, and clubwomen of the city who have heard her lecture upon his work are endeavoring to have her appear before a Salt Lake audience.

Mrs. J. G. Mudge and children are home after a month's stay at Wasatch.

Col. and Mrs. H. F. Bridewell, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Anderson for some months, left early in the week for their home in Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz of Provo and Mrs. E. H. Gowans left yesterday afternoon for their homes, after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. William H. King.

Mrs. E. V. Beebe and daughter, Mrs. Graham of Weiser, Ida., have gone to Evanston, where they will visit Mrs. Phil Steizer.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte, who have spent the past two months at Holiday park, have returned to their home on Thirtieth East street.

Miss Annie Hurd has returned to Eureka after a month's visit with relatives in Salt Lake.

Mrs. C. E. Richards has returned from Colorado Springs, where she spent some weeks.

Mrs. H. P. Henderson will leave shortly to visit her sister in Duluth.

Mrs. Gus Holmes will leave shortly for Santa Monica, where he will be accompanied by the Misses Charlotte and Lelia Holmes.

Mrs. B. F. Deal will return tomorrow from a two month's visit with relatives in the east.

Mrs. Fisher Harris and Mrs. Pfoutz entertained at luncheon at the Commercial club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Dickinson of Denver. The decorations were pink and white asters and covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore announces the engagement of her daughter Jeanette to John Reed Woodbridge, the marriage to take place in September.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. D. H. Twomey and Miss Mae Twomey entertained in honor of Mrs. Pinkerton of Chicago, about 150 guests calling during the afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated, palms, ferns, roses, sweet peas and nasturtiums being used throughout with artistic effect. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mesdames Reed, Andrews and Montgomery, and Mrs. Hall presided in the dining room, being assisted by Misses Radcliffe, Gaty, Luce, Moffatt, Mackenzie.

On Wednesday the Misses Welby were hostesses at an informal Kensington given in honor of the Misses Guitler.

guests of Miss Leonard, a delightful afternoon being spent. Present were Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. Ed Parsons, the Misses May Critchlow, Edna Cohn Sallie Leonard and Florence Stevenson.

Miss Jane Mackintosh entertained yesterday at a Kensington in honor of her guest, Miss Trueman of Chicago. The rooms were decorated with sunflowers and nasturtiums and about 24 were present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Groo and Mr. Arthur Davis will take place in the near future.

A merry party of young people enjoyed a "dally-ho" party last night, driving to Walker's farm and having supper there, and returning home afterward. Among those who made up the party were Misses Helen Burton, Hazel Beattie, Boe Cheeseman, Aileen Maclean, Helen Gillespie, Edith Lowther, Clella McCready, Helen Shepherd, Edith Kingsbury, Afton Kimball, Lucy Gaby.

previous to his leaving for his home in Williamsport, Pa.

Mrs. E. L. Carpenter entertained for Mrs. Dickinson on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Taft of St. Louis, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder for the past two months, leave today for their home.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson and son returned yesterday from California, where they have spent the summer.

Miss May Converse leaves tonight for her home in Grand Junction, after a three weeks' visit in this city.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson and Mrs. Joy have returned from a trip to Pacific Grove, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mahler left for Chicago last night, in consequence of the death of Mrs. Mahler's brother.

W. J. McIntyre has returned from a very pleasant eastern trip.

Mrs. J. J. Judson will return home from Nebraska shortly, where she has been visiting.

Mr. J. W. Lapham, who has been the guest of his mother and brother, ex-Representative J. S. Lapham, left yesterday for his home in Weiser, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wabber are expected home shortly from a trip through the Northwest and California.

Miss Inez Van Sant and the Misses Nelson, of American Fork, have returned from Ogden.

The Misses Nelson of American Fork have been visiting Miss Inez Van Sant the latter part of the week.

Mrs. J. C. Griffiths returns the first of the month from an extended visit in Chicago and Iowa.

Miss Myra Sawyer sails from Boston Wednesday for London, where she will stop a short time before going to Paris to study art for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning, Miss Leta McMillan and Miss Margie Miller have returned to the city after arriving in the small hours of the morning. Those constituting the party were the Misses Della, Susie and Ada Bitter, Alice Cunningham, Dora Brinton, Elma Young and Messrs. E. J. Taylor, Fred Morris, Lawrence Mariger, Coleman, Oscar Pensch and Cliff Young.

Mrs. W. F. Adams, who has been spending the past month at Pacific Grove, will return about the end of next week.

Mrs. Russell L. Tracy will return from California about the middle of September.

Mrs. Holmes and her daughters, the Misses Charlotte and Lelia Holmes, will leave some time during the coming week for Santa Monica.

The Misses Gertrude and Myrtle Rellly have returned from a trip to Denver, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Landis, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cunningham are expected home next week from their wedding trip.

Colonel and Mrs. N. W. Clayton and their son and daughter left recently for Detroit, where Miss Clayton will remain during the coming year, pursuing her musical studies.

Mrs. J. H. Ryckman left last night for a visit for a few weeks with friends in Ogden.

Mrs. Earl Vivian McCune has returned from the east.

Mrs. Percy S. Heath, and her mother are still at Chester, Nova Scotia, having a delightful stay. It will be several weeks before Mrs. Heath returns to this city.

Mrs. W. C. Lockington has gone east on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cliff return again from a pleasant visit in California.

Miss Buelah Behle left for Pocatello, Idaho, yesterday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. F. S. Dreppich.

Miss Josephine Morris, a young lady from the General Christian church, performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Prosser have returned from Iowa, where they spent their summer vacation. They have as their guests Mrs. A. P. Shano of Atchison and Miss Miriam Prosser of Burlington, Ia.

Mrs. Horace N. Whitney has returned from Provo, where she has spent the past fortnight as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Dusenberry.

Miss Lillian Oliver has returned from her vacation.

Miss Mae Twomey will return to Chicago September 4, to continue her musical studies.

Mrs. F. M. Lyman arrived from Europe on Monday and is visiting with her daughter Mrs. W. H. King.

The Misses Welby left today to spend a few days with friends in Eureka.

Mrs. H. P. Henderson will leave shortly for a visit to her sister in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Daveler and son Erie have returned from the east.

Mrs. W. W. Betts has gone to her home in St. Louis, after a month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Reed.

Miss Grace Williamson has returned home after a year's visit to relatives in Cleveland, O.

Mrs. R. H. Terhune has returned from Colorado.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing has returned from Wasatch.

Mrs. Louise Lamson is home from a visit to Rock Springs.

Miss Kelley of St. Louis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Eberly.

Dr. Rykert has returned from a trip, through British Columbia.

Mrs. T. B. Beatty has returned from the northwest.

Mrs. J. F. Grant is spending a few weeks with friends in Ogden.

Mr. William Harding and family have gone to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young and son Lee, have returned from Wyoming.

Miss Olive Foster of Shreveport, La., left yesterday morning for their home.

Mrs. J. F. Marshall is at home for the present at 254 south Third st.

Miss Agnes Bowman has returned from her trip through Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. George W. Snow left Monday for Denver on a short visit, accompanied by her daughters, Cora and Eva, Aline Yard and June Whittemore.

Mrs. Louis Schoppe, Miss Frances Howat and Judge Howat returned yesterday morning from a six weeks' trip to Portland.

Andrew Howat will return in two weeks to Williston seminary, East Hampton.

Mrs. Jackson McChrystal of Eureka is in town.

Major and Mrs. Swift of New York are visiting Major and Mrs. Wood of Fort Douglas.

Mrs. Calhoun of Bridgeport, Conn., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert B. Harkness.

Mrs. W. H. Bancroft, Miss Katherine

Low and the Misses Nason are in Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Louis Schoppe returned yesterday from Silver Lake.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Miss Genevieve Douglass gave a Kensington Wednesday evening at her home on Madison avenue in honor of Miss Lulu Penrose and Miss Florence Grant of Salt Lake City. There were present about 30 of the young ladies' friends. The evening was delightfully spent in vocal and instrumental music, cards and other pastimes. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room and all present enjoyed themselves.

A reception was given last evening at the Methodist church hall in honor of Rev. Womur. There was a large attendance of the gentlemen's friends participated in the evening's pleasures. A very pleasing program, consisting of songs, recitations, speeches, etc., was rendered. The ladies prepared refreshments. The entire affair was a success.

Louis F. Moench, Jr., returned home Tuesday after a three years' mission in Germany, where he enjoyed himself very much.

The Fourth ward gave a lawn social and reunion at the Liberty park bridge afternoon and evening which was enjoyed by several hundred people. The hours passed quickly away in music, dancing, feasting, etc.

Miss Lulu Penrose, who has been visiting in Ogden the guest of Mrs. E. A. Larkin, has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

Miss Florence Grant and Miss Rogers returned to their homes in Salt Lake Thursday evening after a pleasant visit with friends in Ogden.

Miss Lizzie Rackham and Mr. George Lockhead were given a surprise party Wednesday evening at Miss Rackham's home on Twenty-seventh street. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games, music, etc., after which refreshments were served. Miss Rackham and Mr. Lockhead have cards on announcing their marriage which will take place Wednesday, Sept. 3, in the Salt Lake Temple. A reception will be tendered the bride and groom at the home of the groom's parents on the evening of Sept. 3.

Miss Winnifred Woodmansee gave a lawn party Thursday afternoon at her beautiful home on south Washington avenue in honor of Misses Penrose, Rogers and Grant, of Salt Lake.

Miss Jesse Smith and Mr. Elmer Hassel, two popular young people of Ogden, were married Thursday by Judge P. J. Hall.

Miss Maud Lewis entertained last Saturday afternoon. There were present Misses Agnes R. Lane and Thais Magrane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowser, Alfred Swenson, James H. Lewis and Theodore Lewis of the "Corianton" company, and Miss McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conlick returned home this week from a trip east.

Louis Ponds, of Denver, spent the week in Ogden with relatives.

Don McBeth left Thursday for the coast after a three month's visit with his parents in Ogden.

Extensive preparations are being made for a grand celebration in Ogden on Labor day, Monday, Sept. 1, under the auspices of the International Association of Machinists.

Miss Mary E. Goodwin and Robert Bybee, two popular young people of Utah, were married this week.

Miss Mamie Moffit, of Salt Lake, was an Ogden visitor this week, the guest of Mrs. John Hurst.

DAINTY MATINEE EFFECT.

Matinee of finely tucked lavender silk, with Cluny lace and insertion, and wide bands of the silk cut and embroidered to admit of lacing of black ribbon velvet. Jacket effect of lace, laid on with tasseled bows of the velvet. Skirt of deep wine red pompadour silk, brocaded with light colored flowers, trimmed with knitted flounces of dull rose silk, with Spanish lace flounces over.

TO RETURN

Mrs. Scovel.

When Frederick Roosevelt Scovel led his bride, Miss Vivian Sartoris, to the altar at Coburg, ex-President Grant's granddaughter was mated to President Roosevelt's cousin. The news of the engagement was a great surprise to society and the return of the young couple is eagerly awaited.

having enjoyed the hospitality of Manager Rader of the Annie Laurie mines at Gold Mountain the past week.

Mrs. James C. Leary and daughter, Lorine, will leave next Sunday for a month's visit with relatives in Kansas City.

Miss Pauline Terhune has returned from Denver.

Mrs. W. J. McIntyre and sons go to Silver Lake on Monday for a short visit.

Oliver Terry of Lafayette, Ind., arrived on Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Percival O. Perkins.

Allan M. Howard has returned to town.

Hugo Druehl is here from Haverhill, Mass., for a short vacation.

Miss Ee Cheesman has returned to the city.

Mr. Owen Gray of Des Moines, Ia., is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Hoyt of Port Douglas.

Miss Blanche Cherry returned home yesterday, after a brief visit with friends in Denver.

A jolly party of young people invaded the lonely precincts of Mountain Dell on Tuesday night last, spending a very pleasant evening. Taking possession of the old school house in the Dell, they made merry until a late hour, dancing and having a general good time. They then drove back to town who is remembered by many friends as a clever elocutionist, is now studying under Alfred Ayres in New York.

Mrs. George Imbre is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hayden and friends in this city.

Miss Lottie Jackson, who for the past two years has been in charge of the drawing and foreign languages in the Proctor academy, Provo, will return, the early part of September from a pleasure trip through England, Holland, France and Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Riger, Jr., have moved from their home in east Brigham, and the settled at 258 Second street.

Mrs. L. U. Jones of Denver, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Williamson.

Miss Zeralda Barringer has gone to Los Angeles for a visit after spending some time here as the guest of Miss Edith Sheridan.

Mrs. E. J. Wherry left on Thursday for her home in Kansas after having spent the summer in Utah visiting her sons, Dr. Arthur Wherry of this city and the Doctors Wherry of Ogden.

Mrs. B. F. Forbes has returned from a visit of two months to her old home in Iowa.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Lillian Leigh Hardin of San Diego, Cal., and Mr. George Kirchner of Pueblo, Colo., were united in marriage, Rev. Pinker,